It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 6a, 6b, 6c, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of an act, entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Manville Fire District, passed at the May session, A.D. 1891, as amended by act passed at the January session, A.D. 1893, by chapter 1644 of the public laws, passed at the January session, A.D. 1908, and by chapter 1168 of the public laws, passed at the January session, A.D. 1914 and by chapter 2426 of the Acts and Resolves, passed at the January session, A. D. 1923, and by the Acts and Resolves at the January session, A.D. 1953, and by chapter 3565 of the public laws passed at the January session, A.D. 1955, and by the Acts and Resolves passed at the January session, A.D. 1958, and by chapter 26 of the Public Laws passed at the January session, A.D. 1980, are hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2. The taxpayers of said district qualified to vote in town affairs or propositions to impose taxes or for the expenditures of money shall be eligible to vote and act in all meetings of the corporation Provided, however, that such taxpayers must have paid their taxes in full to the fire district not less than ninety-six (96) hours previous to the time specified for the meetings at which they may desire to vote.

SECTION 3. There shall be an annual meeting of said corporation on the second Tuesday in September of each and every year, for the purpose of electing officers, ordering taxes and providing for assessing and collecting the same, enacting by-laws as prescribed in section 10 and transacting such business or adopting such measures, consistent with the charter, which the qualified voters at said meeting shall deem beneficial to the fire district. The newly elected officers shall assume office on the first day of October of the same year. And in order to bring before that annual meeting any measure pertaining to the fire district it shall not be necessary that the purpose of the meeting be specified in the notice or notices posted to call said meeting. All meetings of said corporation shall be called by the clerk, or in the event of his death or inability, by the moderator, by posting notices not less than fourteen (14) days before each meetings in eight (8) public places within the district and by advertising in two local newspapers three (3) days prior to date of said meeting. two (2) local newspapers three (3) days prior to date of said meeting. Each notice posted and each newspaper advertisement shall contain time and place at which such meeting is to be held. In the case of a special meeting where the posting of notices for fourteen (14) days prior to the date would create a financial emergency, the clerk or in the event of his death, the moderator shall at the direction of the board of fire wardens advertise in two (2) local newspapers notice of said special meeting three (3) days prior to the date of said special meeting.

SECTION 4. Special meetings of said corporation shall be held for purposes pertaining to the fire district, provided an application in writing be made to the clerk of the corporation by all fire wardens or by thirty (30) or more qualified voters of said fire district; setting forth specifically the whole purpose of the desired meeting. Business at such meeting shall be limited to the specific item(s) specified on the warrant for said special meeting. It shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk, (or in case of his death or inability, of the moderator), to issue notices of the proposed meeting in the manner prescribed in section 3, which notices shall specify the subject to be acted upon, mention the names of the fire wardens, or of not less than thirty (30) taxpayers who shall have applied for the holding of said meeting, and be signed by the clerk or by the moderator of the corporation.

SECTION 5. The officers of the fire district shall consist of one (1) moderator, one (1) clerk, one (1) treasurer, one (1) tax collection, three (3) assessors of taxes, two (2) auditors, five (5) fire wardens; and said officers shall be elected by the qualified voters at the annual meeting of the fire district to remain in office until the next annual meeting or the election of their successors. Any officer who shall neglect his duty may be impeached by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voters of the district present at the meeting at which such vote is taken. All vacancies occurring by reason of death, incapacity, resignation, or the retirement of any officer may be filled at a special meeting of the district called for that purposes; provided, however, that any vacancy occurring within the two (2) months preceding the annual meeting shall be filled by a majority vote of the board of fire wardens.

SECTION 6. The terms of the tax assessors, auditors, and the fire wardens shall be for two (2) year terms. All other officers shall be elected for one (1) year terms.

SECTION 6a. Election of Tax Assessors: -- At the annual meeting on the even numbered years, two (2) tax assessors shall be elected for a two (2) year term and on the odd numbered years one (1) tax assessor shall be elected to a two term.

SECTION 6b. Election of Fire Wardens: -- At the annual meeting on the even numbered years three (3) fire wardens shall be elected for two (2) year terms and on the odd numbered years two (2) fire wardens shall be elected to two (2) year terms.

SECTION 6c. At the annual meeting one (1) auditor shall be elected for a two (2) year term.

SECTION 7. The moderator shall preside at all annual and special meetings of the fire district which shall have been called by proper notice; and at such meetings shall conduct the proceedings, decide all discussions according to law, and have command over all the records of the clerk, of the treasurer, and of the tax collector during such meetings. The rulings or decisions of the moderator at said meetings shall be binding upon the fire district. The decision of the presiding officer may be appealed upon by those present and entitled to a vote and a two-third (2/3) majority of the voters will be required to sustain the appeal and over rule the decision. An appeal of his decisions or ruling may be taken by an qualified voter of said district to the superior court to be holden within the county of Providence.
